27. Must possess physical ability to perform restraint, self-defense, and arrest techniques as trained.

Gordon Police Mission Statement

The Gordon Police Department is dedicated to both serving and protecting the Gordon College community, its guests and all other visitors to campus. Our officers have a unique dual role. Our Massachusetts Special State Police officers are empowered to enforce the laws of the Commonwealth, and they strive to provide professional police services to this campus. All of our officers, both sworn and non-sworn, are employees of the College who are committed to the spiritual life and shared faith of this community. It is the mission and desire of this department to do everything (whether responding to a police or medical emergency, enforcing proper campus conduct, or performing simple acts of service) in a spirit of Christian love and to the glory of God.
